Finally , i would like to give information about malaysia's views on womens rights and gender equality . there many laws in the malaysian constitution to keep both gender equal . one of the best examples to be given is the increase in the working rate of woman 40% to more than%50 . this rate remains quite high compared to other muslim countries . recently only %19 of iranian woman work or in another example %33 in saudi arabia Malaysia remains much higher next to these rates.
