

country: Iraq
committee: UNDP

Iraq's official name is al-cumhuriyetü'l - irakiyye and it's capital city is Baghdad. The soils of our country show quite different characteristics from each other in terms of surface shapes and climate. Our country has geopolitical importance with it's oil reserves and arable lands.

The United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) is a United Nations agency tasked with helping countries eliminate poverty and achieve sustainable economic growth and human development. Sustainable development is that meets the needs of the present without compromising the ability of future generations to meet their needs. To end hunger and poverty all over the world, to combat climate change, to ensure gender equality to, promote quality education, responsible production and consumption.

Iraq culture and history, embraces an ambitious development reality that seeks to achieve high-quality and sustainable human development for its citizens. It is a path engraved in the country's 2005 consultations as well as in its long term national development vision, based on strong national partnerships and commitment to implementing monitoring, and tracking sustainable development goals and reporting on progress made.

references:

<https://www.vng-international.nl/iraq-sustainable-development-through-improved-local-governance>