

Committee: SPECPOL(Special Political and Decolonization Committee)

Country: Poland

Agenda Item: Israeli-Palestinian Conflict: The Military Occupation of the Gaza Strip and Its Implications

Honorable Chair, distinguished delegates,

The issue of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict is of great concern to the delegation of Poland in SPECPOL(Special Political and Decolonization Committee). As we mark the one-year anniversary of our engagement in this esteemed committee, Poland acknowledges the gravity of the situation and the imperative for collective action to find a just and lasting solution to the protracted conflict.

Poland recognizes the historical complexities underpinning the Israeli-Palestinian conflict, with roots tracing back to the mid-20th century. The establishment of the State of Israel and the subsequent displacement of Palestinians have left lasting scars on the region. Understanding the historical context is essential for formulating comprehensive and just solutions.

The current situation in the region demands immediate attention. Ongoing violence, settlement expansion, and disputes over Jerusalem exacerbate tensions, hindering the prospects for a peaceful resolution. Poland calls for a cessation of hostilities and urges all parties to engage in constructive dialogue to address the pressing issues at hand.

The humanitarian impact of the conflict is deeply troubling. Poland stresses the need for immediate and sustained humanitarian assistance to alleviate the suffering of both Israeli and Palestinian populations. Protecting civilians, ensuring access to basic services, and fostering conditions for sustainable development are critical components of any comprehensive solution.

Poland encourages renewed diplomatic efforts to overcome the current impasse. Israel and Direct negotiations between Palestine and Israel are essential to find common ground. Poland, Israel and It supports a two-state solution in which Palestine coexists in peace and security. Trust the commitment to enhancing measures and dialogue to promote an environment conducive to lasting peace are important steps.

Poland underscores the importance of international cooperation in addressing the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. Collaboration within the SPECPOL (Special Political and Decolonization Committee) and other relevant international forums is vital for mobilizing support, sharing expertise, and facilitating dialogue between the concerned parties.

As we reflect on the past year, Poland remains committed to actively contributing to the resolution of the Israeli-Palestinian conflict. By upholding the principles of international law, advocating for humanitarian assistance, and supporting diplomatic initiatives, Poland aims to be a constructive force in achieving a future where Israelis and Palestinians can coexist peacefully.
