

POSITION PAPER

COMMITTEE : EUROPEAN COUNCIL

DELEGATION : GERMANY

AGENDA ITEM : Refugee Problem in Europe

Germany recognizes the global refugee crisis as a pressing humanitarian challenge that necessitates collective action and international cooperation. As a nation with a strong commitment to human rights and humanitarian principles, Germany emphasizes the importance of addressing the root causes of displacement, providing protection to refugees, and fostering durable solutions to the crisis.

Historically, Germany has demonstrated a proactive approach to refugee protection and assistance. From providing refuge to millions of displaced persons after World War II to its response to the Syrian refugee crisis in 2015, Germany has shown solidarity and compassion towards refugees while advocating for burden-sharing and cooperation within the European Union and the international community.

In addressing the current refugee crisis, Germany remains steadfast in its commitment to upholding the rights and dignity of refugees and asylum seekers. Germany advocates for a comprehensive approach that encompasses humanitarian assistance, refugee integration, conflict resolution, and sustainable development efforts. By promoting international cooperation and solidarity, Germany believes that sustainable solutions to the refugee crisis can be achieved, ensuring the protection and well-being of refugees worldwide.
