

Country: South Africa

Committee: LEGAL

Topic: Cybersecurity and International Regulations on Artificial Intelligence

South Africa is a country located in continental Africa. South Africa countries in artificial intelligence, but it has the potential to become a more powerful AI hub in the future. We argue that countries need to work together to achieve this.

Artificial intelligence, powered by machine learning, will hold a powerful position in the future. While AI can help humans, it is also dangerous. South Africa argues that countries need to work together to prevent this. South Africa to developed AI-Based seamless connectivity technologies.

Even though there is currently no artificial intelligence unique to South Africa, South Africa believes that countries need to work to solve these problems. South Africa also uses artificial intelligence mostly in education, they are very cautious regarding potential risks.

REFERENCES:

South African Government

Wikipedia

Britannica

Study Guide