

Addressing Femicide Through Legislative Action and International Cooperation

Country: Saudi Arabia

Committee: The United Nations Entity for Gender Equality and the Empowerment of Women (UNWOMEN)

Delegate: Ayşe Ceylin Cengiz

SAUDI ARABIA IS POPULATION OF 33.26 MILLION LOCATED IN ASIA. IT IS A NICE AND BIG COUNTRY WHICH HAS DIFFERENT FEATURES. SAUDI ARABIA HAS 33.26 MILLION PEOPLE MOST OF WHO ARE ARAB. IT HAS OIL AND EXPORTS AND OIL RESERVES WHICH HAVE BEEN ITS MAIN INGREDIENT TO MAKE MONEY IT HAS AN ABSOLUTE MONARCHY. SAUDI ARABIA HAS GOOD RELATIONSHIP WITH MOST BUT NOT ALL REGIONS THERE ARE GREAT POWERS SUCH AS USA, RUSSIA, AND, CHINA . SAUDI ARABIA IS A GENDER EQUALITY ALLY AND POWERFUL BY REMINDING EVERYBODY SAYS THE SAME THEY ARE EQUAL IN GENDER AND EMPOWERING THE WOMAN GENDER AS IN UNWOMEN ALSO SAYS THOSE GOALS ARE COHERENT WITH THEIR OWN DEVELOPMENT PLANS (VISION 2030) AND, KINGDOM IS OPEN FOR GENDER EQUALITY, TO MAKE THE SPACE FOR WOMEN'S ALLY THEN WHILE ACHIEVING THESE GOALS FOR GENDER EQUALITY, ALL OF THIS SHOULD BE SUPPORTED BY ISLAMIC VALUES AND ALLOWANCE FOR NATIONAL NORMS SHOULD BE SUPPORTED.

THEREFORE; THE REFORMS THAT HAPPENED IN RECENT TIME FOR WOMEN ARE CONTRIBUTIONS FOR UNWOMEN AS IN THE SUPPORTIVE OPERATION PART OF THE PD AS IN HAS INCLUDED (THE RIGHT TO DRIVE, THE RIGHT TO TRAVEL ABROAD, OR EVEN INCREASING PARTICIPATION IN A WAY AS TO CREATE LARGE SPECTRUM FOR A VERY TEACHING AND PERCEPTUAL SENSE OF WORKFORCE). Saudi Arabia is doing its best to empower and motivate women under Vision 2030. This isn't about introducing new laws here; this is about the improvement of education, awareness, and creating great social support channels. The Kingdom understands that a halt to femicide will require more than punitive action; the cause of the violence needs to be understood, as well as fixing the root issues.

To achieve this, Saudi Arabia encourages frank and open discussion and dynamic community participation. It is developing mechanisms to achieve lasting change. While the Kingdom is open to cooperation with other countries, it stresses that whatever solutions are evolved must consider the
