Country: Argentina

Agenda items: Preventing Child Trafficking in Third World Countries

Argentina is a country located in the South American continent. Argentina's land is the 2nd largest in the South American continent and the 8th largest in the world. Argentina's name comes from the Latin word argentum (silver). What the mine the Spanish colonists hoped to find in these lands is clear from the country's name. Most of the residents of the country are descendants of Spanish and Italian immigrants.

International Organizations AfDB (out-of-region member), Australian Group, BCIE, BIS, CAN (partner), CD, CELAC, FAO, FATF, G-15, G-20, G-24, G-77, IADB, IAEA, IBRD, ICAO, ICC (national committees), ICCT, ICRM, IDA, IFAD, IFC, IFRC, IHO, ILO, IMF, IMO, IMSO, Interpol, IOC, IOM, IPU, ISO, ITSO, ITU, LAES, LAIA, MERCOSUR, MIGA, NAM (observer), NSG, OAS, OPANAL, OPCW

Argentina is still trying to improve children's rights but has poverty problems. Argentina still cannot completely protect children's rights under equal conditions and expect help from countries with good economy.

The steps Argentina takes to raise awareness of children's rights to families; for example; try to inform families with T.V show, informative programs and banners.
